First rule

Hello guys, unfortunately we have to ask you to play on the first day of the game for fairness reasons!

Broken bamboo or frozen bacon 1st point can be played for free by anyone!

If you don't play without an excuse, you will receive a red card and if you receive a second red card you will be kicked out of our great team!

If you remain inconspicuous after 3 rounds, however, the red card will be taken away!

Be fair, only together are we really strong!
